Skillful Surgery!

Removal of Urinary Calculi by the Knife.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N. Y., has been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they call Stricture of the Urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or Stones in the Bladder. The Doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all Kidney and Bladder diseases it is equally valuable in cases of Billious Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it, and its cost is only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. The Doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to Office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

A POLITICAL SESSION AND SMALL RESULTS.

A VETO MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT WHICH THE SENATE REFUSES TO READ.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The President and members of the cabinet reached the capitol a few minutes after ten o'clock today. He has signed every bill that has been submitted to him.

The enrolling of the sundry civil appropriations bill was not completed until three o'clock this morning. The Committee on Enrolled Bills expect to have it ready to lay before the President in half an hour.

The general deficiency bill will also be ready to sign by that time.

The President inquired whether there was any probability of the passage of a bill providing for the abolition of supervisors of elections. He said if there were he was ready with a veto, as he would treat this bill the same as the marshals bill.

The Senate has just gone into executive session, which ends further public business by the Senate, and finally prevents the veto from being read.

The House has been engaged on dilatory motions, to prevent action on any of the various jobs which are pending in that body.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Both houses adjourned promptly at twelve, and the halls are now filled with crowds of people indulging in general hand-shaking and leave-taking. A large number of members are disappointed that many bills in which they and their constituents were interested were allowed to fail. Most of the Democratic Senators are to leave on Saturday for Cincinnati.

Senators Hoar and Dawes will leave at once for Massachusetts. Representative Robinson left in the two o'clock train for Boston. Other members of the delegation will leave tonight and in the morning.

TALK OF AN EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Democrats are beginning to talk of an extra session because the Deputy Marshals bill has been vetoed, but there is no probability that an extra session will be called.

THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST DELEGATE.—THE PREPARATIONS FOR ENTERTAINING THE POLITICIANS.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—Mr. Hilp, of Nevada, is the first delegate to arrive to attend the National Democratic Convention. He says he is personally for Thurman and that of his four colleagues three are for Tilden and one for Seymour, but the delegation is instructed to vote for Tilden. The work of letting rooms and preparing for guests goes on at all the leading hotels. The Hamilton County Democratic Club will receive and as far as possible entertain the visiting Democratic organizations. It has secured elegant quarters at Thom's Hall.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANVASS.

SEYMOUR'S POSITION.—CONKLING TO STUMP NEW YORK.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Senator Kernan's friends say that that the report that he went to Utica to obtain an authoritative statement from ex-Governor Seymour as to the latter's purpose is incorrect, and that Mr. Kernan's business was to attend to a law case. There is reason to believe, however, that Mr. Kernan has written a letter here expressing the opinion that Seymour is not a candidate.

Senator Conkling is reported as saying that he will stump New York state for Garfield and Arthur. The New York State Association here will take a prominent part in the serenade to General Garfield tonight.

A GIGANTIC STEAL.

THE DEFALCATION AND FLIGHT OF THE BRATTLEBORO' BANKER.

BRATTLEBORO', Vt., June 16.—The rumors upon which yesterday's despatches were based, concerning the insolvency of the First National Bank of Brattleboro', are more than realized this morning. Although a thorough investigation had not begun at 2 o'clock, enough is already known to warrant the statement that the loss will reach upward of a quarter of a million dollars through the forgeries of President S. M. Waite, who has undoubtedly left the country, and as the directors believe, taken a large sum of money with him. How much can only be determined by a long searching investigation which will be begun on the arrival of Bank Examiner Hendee today, and who will act as receiver for the present.

TRAIN THIEVES IN PENNSYLVANIA.

INEFFECTUAL ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE A TRAIN ON THE LEBANON VALLEY ROAD.

READING, June 16.—A gang of tramps attempted to seize a train on the Lebanon Valley Railroad today, and a number of special police secreted on the train arrested two of them. The prisoners belong to a gang in camp in the mountains, supposed to be train thieves. One of the prisoners, Stover, made a break from the officers, but was shot, recaptured and brought to jail here, where the ball was extracted from his head.

BY CABLE.

MR. BRADLAUGH'S CASE.

LONDON, June 16.—The select committee of the House of Commons to which the case of Mr. Bradlaugh was referred has decided that he may not be permitted to take the ordinary oath of allegiance as administered to other members, but may take his seat upon registering an affirmation, but must do this at his own risk; that is to say, that he will be held liable to the same penalties which would be inflicted upon a witness in court who, after having affirmed, should be detected in telling lies. The decision of the committee is looked upon as lame and excites much derision.

DEATH OF WILLIAM DIXON.

GLASGOW, June 16.—William Dixon, the great Scotch ironmaster, died this morning. He began his business life with small means and became one of the prominent employers of labor and accummulators of wealth in the iron trade. He gave money freely to all worthy objects. He was also generous and considerate to his employes, among whom he was very popular. Nevertheless, like a true Scotchman, he liked good bargains, but always acted in strict accordance with the principles of moral and commercial honor. He was never unjust, and his name stood high in the books of all with whom he had dealings.

DEATH IN THE WATER.

A TERRIBLE SCOURGE PREVAILING AT ADAMS, MASS.

NORTH ADAMS, June 16.—A terrible scourge resembling dysentery, is prevailing in Adams, which, so far, has baffled the skill of physicians. Over 1000 persons, old and young, have been stricken down. The physicians are busy night and day. Many cases it is feared, will be fatal. Little doubt exists but that the epidemic is occasioned by the impurities of the water in the reservoir, as several North Adams railroad men have been stricken down today with the scourge after drinking of the reservoir water. While none are seriously ill, all are unable to resume work.

GENERAL GARFIELD.

SERENADE TO THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The serenade to General Garfield this evening was in every way a successful demonstration. An immense throng blocked G street around the temporary balcony erected over the north entrance to the Riggs House. There were flags, calcium lights, fireworks and music in great abundance. The crowd was very enthusiastic. The speeches by General Garfield, Attorney General Devens and General George A. Sheridan are much praised, and especially that of General Devens. Many other prominent Republicans, representing every part of the country, made speeches, which were cordially received. General Garfield's rooms at the Riggs House have been thronged with friends all day. He did not go to the Capitol.

THE WESTERN STORMS.

CHICAGO, June 16.—A despatch from Milwaukee says: Reports from northern and central Wisconsin in relation to the floods indicate that unless more rain falls immediately the danger is over. The loss in the lumber regions is estimated at not less than $200,000. It is believed now that the worst is over.

RESUMED MINING AT LEADVILLE.

DENVER, Col., June 16.—A despatch from Leadville says: Every mine, except the Duncan and the Carbonate, is running with full force. The strike is over, and everything is quiet. From present appearances, the camp will in a few days produce as much as ever.

THE INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 16.—The delegates to the Republican State Convention to be held here tomorrow are assembling, and a lively canvass is in progress. A full state ticket and an electoral ticket are to be nominated. The Republicans feel that they have been strengthened by the nomination of Garfield, and they are more than usually anxious to place a strong ticket in the field.

New York, Boston, Providence, Philadelphia and New England city directories on the counter for the convenience of the public.

PERSONALS.

......Gen. Garfield is said to be very fond of base ball.

......Senator Vance of North Carolina is soon to marry a lady of Louisville, Ky.

...... Mrs. Paran Stevens has been dangerously ill in England. At last accounts she was convalescent.

......The Prince of Wales used at Truro the other day the mallet with which Charles II. laid the foundation stone of St. Paul's Cathedral.

......Mr. Boutwell is seriously ill at his home in Groton; he has not been able to leave the house since his return from the Chicago Convention.

......Mr. Blaine is expected to reach his home at Augusta, Me., today, and arrangements are making for giving him a grand reception in the evening.

......Prince Gortschakoff is reported to have make a marvellous recovery, and is in Baden full of health and spirits. He will spend the summer there, and next winter in Paris.

......The head of John the Baptist, which is at Amiens, was shown to the Abbe de Marolles. In kissing it he exclaimed, "God be praised! this is the fifth or sixth that I have had the honor of kissing."

......General Garfield will remain in Washington until Friday, settling up his private business and gathering together his papers. He will then return direct to his home in Ohio, where his family is. His letter of acceptance will be written some time next week.

......Miss Georgia Cayvan, known in the East as a successful reader, has become a member of the Madison Square Theatre, where she made her debut last week in "Hazel Kirke" with marked success. Her contract, except for time required to fill reading engagements, is for a term of years.

......Mr. Angel, an English composer, recently composed a galop for a concert in London on Derby day, in 22 minutes, scored it for the orchestra in five hours, copied it out for the different instruments from morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and it was rehearsed and played in the evening with great success.

......Judge Tourgee, the author of "A Fool's Errand," has gone to Canada to finish his new book, thus making sure of an English copyright. This work is to be a study of black and white character in the South, with perhaps enough politics distributed through it to make it interesting to those who are not attracted by mere fiction.

FACTS AND COMMENTS ABOUT THE SOUND DISASTER.

"Most of them are 'longshoremen who know little enough about boats or seamanship." So says the captain of the steamer Stonington of his crew, which he thinks was fully as good as the average on the Sound steamers. "If they know enough to run a truck or handle a bale of goods that is considered sufficient," he explained further, and he evidently made an honest confession. Taking him at his word, the system of manning these steamers is a most vicious one, and ought to be reformed altogether without a moment's delay.

When the Stonington arrived at a dry dock in this city on Sunday one-half of her life boats were fastened on her davits, evidently not having been lowered for a very long time, or perhaps never. They had remained snugly ensconsed there even while hundreds of men, women and children were struggling for dear life within hearing distance. It was not because there was nobody to man them, for one of the officers complains that there were only too many willing to go to the rescue. Discipline and cool, collected heads seem to be sadly needed on some of these steamers.

"There was no time to assign men to each boat specially," says the purser of the Narragansett. Perhaps not, but on a well-regulated steamer it is not necessary to make assignments just before the vessel is going down. The men know to which boat they belong and act accordingly.

One half of the life preservers on the Narragansett were useless because they had no straps wherewith to fasten them to the body. The laws of the United States require that a sufficient number of life preservers shall be kept in perfect order and in convenient places on board of every vessel. The inspector who made the last inspection of this vessel should feel called upon to rise and explain.

While the Narragansett was slowly sinking and rapidly burning, an officer came on deck and told the passengers that there was no danger whatever, and that it was folly to put on life preservers! There seems to have been altogether too much talk and too little action on the part of those in charge of this vessel during that fatal night. This company appears to have been running its boats with the aid of embryo orators rather than able seamen.

When the boats of the Stonington were finally plugged and set afloat it was found that the crew did not know how to row. The horse marines must give way to the Providence and Stonington line sailors.

Passengers on board the Stonington are pretty unanimous in the opinion that the captain and other officers of that steamer lost their heads when the collision with the Narragansett occurred.

That the officers and crews of both the Stonington and Narragansett were never drilled in the manning of life boats, or in anything else that might be of service in a time of excitement, is very evident. The fact is that the Sound steamers as well as those plying the Hudson are run more like big hotels and cheap restaurants than passenger boats. Porters and waiters take the place of sailors, and coxcomb clerks strut about in the titles which elsewhere are some guarantee of knowledge and ability.—[The Graphic.

THE LOYALTY OF GEN. GARFIELD.

The first performance in Congress which attracted the attention of the country to Gen. Garfield was a speech in reply to Alexander Long, of Ohio, a peace Democrat. Mr. Long advocated the recognition of the Southern Confederacy. The moment Long completed his speech Garfield rose to reply. He began by saying that the occurrences of the day reminded him of two characters connected with the Revolution. The first was Lord Fairfax, who felt it his duty to go with the mother country, and Benedict Arnold, who was a traitor to his country's cause. Lee was the Lord Fairfax and went with his state. Continuing, he said:

"But now when tens of thousands brave souls have gone up to God under the shadow of the flag; when thousands more, maimed and shattered in the contest, are sadly waiting the deliverance of death; now when three years of terrific warfare have raged over us, when armies have pushed the rebellion back of mountains and rivers and crowded it into narrow limits until a roll of fire girds it; now when the uplifted hand of a magnetic people is about to hurl the bolts of conquering power upon the rebellion; now, in the quiet of this hall, hatched in the lowest depths of a similar dark treason, there rises a Benedict Arnold, and proposes to surrender all up, body and spirit, the nation and the flag, its genius and its honor; now and forever to the accursed traitors of our country! And that proposition comes—God forgive and pity my beloved state—it comes from a citizen of the time-honored and loyal commonwealth of Ohio. I implore you, brethren in this House, to believe that not many births ever gave pangs to my mother state such as she suffered when that traitor was born. I beg you not to believe that on the soil of that state another such growth has ever defamed the face of nature and darkened the light of God's day.

A GOOD INTRODUCTION.

Favorite Remedy was introduced into Connecticut in 1877, at the solicitation of Rev. J. G. Smith, of Hartford, who, after having suffered for years from Chronic Liver Disease and Indigestion, obtained the medicine and was cured. This faithful pastor, thinking of the bodies as well as the souls of his people, at once commenced the advocacy of "Favorite Remedy" among them, and has been the happy instrument of saving scores of lives. Favorite Remedy is now as well and favorably known in Connecticut as along the Hudson. One dollar a bottle. All druggists sell it. Dr. David Kennedy, Proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost."—[Christian Advocate.

Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient

continues to hold its own against all the imitations that its great success has encouraged other manufacturers to put upon the market. For years this mild, wholly uninjurious and efficacious preparation has enjoyed the confidence of the public, until it has become one of the indispensable and most trusted of known medicaments. From one end of the country to the other it is in constant demand, and even abroad it has a reputation scarcely less decided. Physicians prescribe and recommend it, and it is not ranked by them among what they know and oppose as patent medicine. It has none of the unpleasing effects upon the health that attach to the numberless purgatives and cathartics that are scattered widespread through the land. On the contrary, Tarrant's Seltzer gently assists nature and does not violently attack it. In service in most of the lesser complaints that are a source of general trouble give to it a wider sphere of usefulness than is covered by any similar aperient. These comments are unnecessary to those who have ever given this seltzer a trial, and are intended solely for those who, suffering from the troubles which it inevitably remedies, have not yet sought in it a relief from such ailments. je17-11

Newport Daily News, and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted), at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, the latest markets and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 32 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the WHOLE YEAR is paid STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty-five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

The job office has recently been supplied with new type and a new press, especially adapted to fine work. Liberal supplies of choice papers, envelopes and cards, always on hand. Prices as low as possible for first class work.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1880.

Martial law has been proclaimed in Leadville and the striking miners have submitted to the inevitable.

Titusville will scarcely need to illuminate on the Fourth. Its recent burn out cost the town $1,500,000 and was a big blaze.

The polar regions are trying to supply the temperate zone with ice, having doubtless heard of the high prices charged down this way. And so the bergs come along.

The Irish tenants refuse to pay the rent and rise up in arms against the landlords and constables. One of the rioters was killed yesterday by an officer. More trouble is expected.

Most of the passengers who were on the unfortunate steamer Anchoria, sailed today in another vessel provided for their special use. A few gave up the trip altogether, and some decided to "wait until next summer."

The Massachusetts Democrats offer Judge Abbott, ex-Governor Gaston and Mayor Prince as fit candidates for the Presidency. Why Ben Butler is omitted cannot easily be understood, as he is no abler man than either, and would poll a larger vote in the state.

There is great excitement in and about North Adams, Mass., over a mysterious sickness that affects more than a thousand people. It is believed that something is the matter with the water which is supplied to the people. Thus far the physicians are unable to cope with the disease.

There is some doubt as to whether or not Horatio Seymour is a candidate for the nomination at Cincinnati, but there is none whatever as to Samuel J. Tilden. The sage of Cipher alley, which runs out of Gramercy Park, is busily at work, and is quite likely to turn up master of the situation.

President Babcock, of the Stonington Line indignantly denies that there was any lack of precautionary measures on the part of the company against accidents or their results. His assertions are quite at variance with the statements of passengers who were rescued, and the public will be left to judge between the two.

The uncertainty of the political complexion of the next Congress may be appreciated when it is remembered that 67 Republicans and 48 Democrats in the present Congress were elected by pluralities or by very small majorities. There are 13 members from Pennsylvania, mostly Republicans, who were elected by pluralities.

The great regatta on the Seekonk river is expected to come off today. There has been so much lying in connection with these boat races and so many failures to come to time on the part of the champions, that the interest in them has greatly declined. Still a great many people are expected on the banks of the river on this occasion.

Congress, having succeeded admirably in dodging the practical issues before the country, such as finance, tariff, the electoral count, etc., has finally adjourned. The session has been devoted to President making, and whatever has been done or left undone, has been with reference to the coming election, and with but little regard to the interests of the country. The majority of the Senate took occasion to gratuitously insult the President at the last moment, which is not at all to the credit of those concerned. President Hayes stands before the people as an angel of light when compared with those who refused to listen to his message.

A correspondent signing himself "Second Ward," writes that he has been waiting for an opportunity to bid for the contract for removing garbage from the city, and he enters a bitter complaint that others have been employed to do the work without giving him a chance to name a price. We judge it is a clear case where a citizen, after the example of Ben Butler and Don Cameron, is able to boast that he does not read the newspapers. If we mistake not the advertisement for proposals has been duly inserted, the award made and publicly announced, as provided by the City Council, and the who ranged in a fair and equitable manner. If we are mistaken in all this, the writer of the complaint is at liberty to show us and the public wherein lies the fault.

The electric light is objected to on sound steamers in a fog because it radiates, and thus confuses pilots. If it could be trained to a focus, so that its rays can be sent straight ahead in a solid pencil, it is said it might penetrate fogs to a great distance, and prove of much value. Pilots and watchmen can work to best advantage when vessels themselves are untouched by a ray of artificial light, while equipped with a headlight of the intensest brightness. Where are the scientists now that they are wanted for this practical work.

—The Point route of omnibuses begins its season today.

—A son of Rev. Dr. Randolph is visiting him from Indianapolis.

—A fine brick sidewalk is being laid in front of the Casino building.

—The steamer Bay Queen took up a great crowd of people to the Seekonk river races.

—The Continental Steamboat Company's officers are wearing uniforms for the first time.

—Two full blown roses from a single bud is the unusual production of a Newport garden.

—Capt. John Waters leaves here tonight for the Cincinnati Convention, of which he is a delegate.

—Capt. John Waters is engaged in driving spiles at Kinsley's wharf for the use of the steamer Frances.

—Samuel Smith has sold to Mrs. Jenny Blakely, wife of T. E. Blakely, a lot of land on Cranston avenue for $2500.

—Albert L. Easton, of this city, was robbed of his watch and chain while on his way to New York early this week.

—Miss S. E. Blatchford and Mr. Philip Schuyler, of New York, have arrived at their respective cottages for the season.

—Rev. Mr. Van Dyke, pastor of the United Congregational Church in this city, is confined to his room by sickness.

—The great boat race on the Seekonk takes place today. The Providence boats will reap a harvest as will also the hotel keepers.

—The steamer Geo. W. Danielson arrived here yesterday afternoon on her first mail trip to Block Island. She attracted a great deal of attention.

—There are now about sixty stores on Bellevue avenue where a few years since there were but a quarter of that number. And all of them are rented.

—Mr. B. F. Thurston, and Mr. F. M Hammett, both of this city, graduated at Brown University yesterday. Mr. Thurston was one of the commencement orators.

—All Saints' chapel will open on Sunday, when the Rev. Dr. Potter, of Grace Church, New York, will preach both morning and afternoon. Services at 11 A. M. and 5 P. M.

—Capt. John W. Downing, of New York, has rented, through Alfred Smith & Son, his fine estate on Malbone avenue to Signor Moulton of Peru, South America.

—The great quantities of strawberries which are transported by the Old Colony railroad from its waystations are delaying the passenger trains somewhat between this city and Boston.

—The peaches offered for sale by Mr. J. H. Parnell's agent are delicious, and no similar fruit, even at a later period in the season, will be more eatable. We learn that Mr. Parnell will be here during the season.

—Persons desiring to take the omnibuses of the Newport Omnibus Company should be careful to read the signs on the buses, as drivers of other wagons often misrepresent themselves as in the employ of the Newport Omnibus Company.

—Mrs. Daniel Wilbur, of Hopkinton, attended the Yearly Meeting up to Tuesday evening, when she returned home. Yesterday morning she was taken with a fainting spell, every restorative was applied, but she died within an hour.

—A number of gentlemen interested in sporting matters are endeavoring to get up a three-days' trotting race in connection with the Boston Circuit, to come off in July. Should they be successful a permanent organization may be looked for.

—Nearly all the committees of the City Council have organized and elected chairmen as follows: Burial Grounds, Wm. S. Bacheller; City Property, Thomas D. Stoddard; Police, H. Augustus Kaull; Streets and Highways, Nathan Barker; Printing, Job T. Langley.

—It is now stated upon excellent authority that the estate of the late John Alfred Hazard represents nearly or quite $200,000. In view of the fact that Mrs. Hazard has asked for a delay in the probating of the will, the probability is that there will be a contest, as she is taking legal advice in regard thereto.

—George Tiffany has sold to John Hone, Jr., for $1 and other considerations, his house on Narragansett avenue and Clay street together with all the personal effects, and the said John Hone, Jr., has for a like consideration transferred the same property to Isabella B. Tiffany.

—Mr. Charles Hyde, who has taken a store in Downing block, is a gilder in every sense of the word, having learned his trade in England. He makes a specialty of gilding furniture, and is receiving some of the best trade in the city. He has new styles of picture frames which he makes up at short notice. His work is well worth inspection.

—Thames street presented an unusually lively appearance at an early hour this morning by the presence of people who came from New York by the Newport line en route for Providence, where the races are in progress today. The unruly element was represented among them as they partook of refreshment in convenient localities on Long wharf, and left without settling the bills. Their conduct on the boat is said to have been very irregular.

—Springfield Commandery, Knights Templar of Springfield, Mass., will visit this city next week. They will arrive on the evening of Wednesday by boat from Providence and will be met at the wharf by Washington Commandery No. 4, of this city, Wm. G. Stevens, Eminent Commander, with Fish's military band. The visiting commandery will be escorted to the Hotel Aquidneck, where the evening will be passed in an informal manner, and the visitors will leave the city on the Providence boat next morning, stopping at one of the shore resorts for a clam dinner.

—Florence Sullivan, of Dearborn street, is a brute. Night before last he was arrested for drunkenness, but was released Wednesday morning on payment of $2 and costs. He immediately proceeded home and there committed an aggravated and unprovoked assault upon his wife. She is very seriously injured. Florence was re-arrested and arraigned before Judge Baker, and fined $10 and costs. He had not the wherewith to pay and was sent to jail in consequence.

—George F. Crandall, Esq., treasurer of Coronet Council, No. 63, of the Royal Arcanum, of this city, paid over today to Mrs. Ruth A. Powell, the widowed mother of the late James T. Powell, who was a member thereof, the sum of three thousand dollars, the benefit to which he was entitled having been considerately made payable by him to her order. This kind and thoughtful act of the deceased son was truly characteristic of him, and more fitly than words of eulogy indicates the unselfishness and fidelity which he carried into the performance of all the duties of life which fell to his lot, an example truly worthy of imitation.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The strawberry festival at Zion Church last night was a success. The chapel was nicely but simply decorated with flags and flowers. The cake, ice cream, strawberry and flower tables, were liberally patronized, and the music of the Fort orchestra added much to the interest of the occasion. The affair was under the charge of the ladies of the Sunday school, and they are entitled to credit for their successful efforts. The receipts were satisfactory.

A DISAGREEABLE CROWD.—The crowd landed from the Old Colony boat this morning was a disgrace to humanity, representing the lowest possible dregs of society. Pick-pockets, gamblers and sharpers were there in full force, looking like thieves every inch of them. On landing a row took place because one of them endeavored to evade his fare. While this was going on a dozen or more slipped out, whether lacking tickets or not is unknown. Fortunately for Newport the vast majority of them proceeded to Providence, where they will operate upon the pockets of the careless, and relieve the greenbacks of spare cash by their thimble-rigging operations. The police should all be ordered on duty tonight, so that the citizens may be properly protected on the arrival here, en route to New York, of this desperate gang. It was the hardest looking crowd that has been seen in this city for many a long day.

THE COMING FOURTH OF JULY.

The committee are making very satisfactory progress in the arrangements for the coming celebration. Gen. Vodges has consented to be present with the troops from Fort Adams, and His Excellency, Gov. Littlefield, has accepted an invitation to be present and participate. The following is his letter addressed to the chairman of the committee:

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
PAWTUCKET, June 15th, 1880.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your polite invitation to myself and staff to visit your city on the approaching anniversary of American Independence, and to join you in the celebration of the day so dear to the people of this glorious country. It gives me great pleasure to accept your invitation for that day.

With many thanks for your kindness,
I am, yours truly,
A. H. LITTLEFIELD.

To the Editor of the Daily News:

Please call attention of City Marshal to the eleventh section of Ordinance found on page 185—of last edition—relative to "vagrants and disorderly persons." Such disgusting exhibitions as were made last season and again this morning, near Frach's confectionery store, ought to be suppressed at once. A woman and little child sitting on the pavements with a wretched hurdy gurdy screeching is a nuisance to be abated forthwith. R.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

A strike of 2000 mechanics, embracing cabinet makers, coopers and shoemakers, has begun at Cincinnati.

In the Persian Gulf last year a million and a half dollars' worth of pearls were found, and 30 divers were appropriated by the sharks.

A small cherry-wood cabinet made by President Lincoln fifty years ago, and used by him as a desk, is owned by a gentleman in Indiana.

The national division of the order of the Sons of Temperance in North America is in session at Cincinnati, G. W. Ross of Ontario, presiding. At the reception Tuesday night addresses were made by Z. Getchell, George W. Ross, Neal Dow, B. D. Townsend, Rev. William Searls and General S. F. Carey.

Society is greatly mixed at Denver, Col., newly acquired riches placing rude and uncultivated men in the front ranks of social and civic life, and many queer stories are told of incidents growing out of this state of things. Among others, it is declared to be a fact the brother-in-law of one of the wealthiest of these new ones is his coachman, and it is said that the wife of the millionaire was indignant because her brother's wife refused the position of "second girl" in the Denver mansion.

THE YEARLY MEETING.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The meeting was opened this morning with prayer by Deborah Thomas. The meeting was informed that $1000 were raised yesterday for the training home for girls on Mt. Lebanon; also $972 for Gospel mission work within the limits of New England Yearly Meeting.

The minutes of the representative meeting were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Mission Work in North Carolina and other Southern states was received. Mr. Read remarked that a prominent man from Georgia says he considers the education of the poor whites of the South the surest way to bring permanent peace to our country, and the society of Friends is doing more to this end than all other denominations in the North. The report was accepted and the same committee was reappointed with the addition of Allen and Martha Jay.

The report of the Committee on Western Indians was received. Dr. Rhoades, secretary of the executive committee, gave a very interesting verbal report and account of the work. The Indians have great confidence in Asa and Emmeline Tuttle, also Friends, for their justice and kindness to them. Many have been converted and a monthly meeting of thirty members has been established, called Timber Hill monthly meeting. At other places they are about to establish regular meetings. Seven missions are kept in the field by Friends. The same committee was continued for the ensuing year.

The report of the Committee on Freedmen and Normal School at Maryville, Tenn., was received. The school has a roll of over 200 pupils. Wm. P. Hastings, principal of the Normal School at Maryville, made some remarks in reference to the work, and the great blessing growing out of it. Dr. Grinnell, from Maryville, says he was appointed in connection with the superintendent of public instruction to inspect the papers of the graduating class. He testified they were far ahead of any papers he had seen from white teachers of the South, and the same committee was reappointed for the ensuing year.

AFTERNOON.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Joseph Stanley.

Geo. Howland, Jr., on behalf of representatives, reported that they were united in reappointing the same Friends to constitute a representative meeting for the ensuing year.

The report of the Joint Committee on Temperance was then read. The committee have done more work than in former years. Over one hundred meetings on the subject have been held the past year, and a large number of tracts and books have been distributed among the members and others. James Boyce, of Lynn, advocated the appointing of a new committee made up of workers only. James Boyce, J. Wm. Jacob and O. Chase were appointed to bring in names at the next session to constitute a temperance committee next year. Wm. Sims says one blot upon our record is that the report comes up every year that some still use some intoxicating drink; also most of our work was prevention, but he hoped we would try and save those already fallen.

The report of the committee on Bible schools was read. Many of the schools have been visited and some good done and a few souls gathered for the Master. They report:

Number of schools	46
Number of scholars	2029
Average attendance	1363
Number of Friends attending	1069
Number of volumes in library	9164
Number who signed triple pledge	362

Seven schools were reported as holding teachers' meeting.

John T. Tucker spoke in favor of teachers' meetings if for no other purpose than to get the teachers together and have a season of prayer to fit themselves for their work.

Timothy Nicholson, of Richmond, Ind., says the Bible school work, thoroughly carried on, is the very best way to build up the church and keep it together. Every member of the church should belong to the Bible school. Old and young should go hand in hand. T. B. Nichols said he believed the hope of the future of the New England Yearly Meeting depends upon the young people of the Bible schools. C. W. Goddard, George Farr, J. J. Frye, William Macomber, Isaac Winslow, Oliver Meader, John F. Chase, Abel C. Monroe and Allen Jay all united in saying that this is a work the meeting ought to wake up to. There is a great responsibility in this direction.

The report of committee on formation of board of foreign missions was read. The meeting not being quite ready to adopt the constitution of the proposed board it was left in care of the committee another year.

The report of the committee on members in the British provinces was read. The same committee was appointed to have the care of them the coming year.

The reports of the Committee on Mosher fund was read. About 800 volumes have been distributed, besides a good many pamphlets. The committee was reappointed.

EVENING.

The evening session was devoted to a meeting on Foreign and Home Missions. Wm. Charles, of Michigan, delivered an address on that subject, followed by J. H. Douglass, more especially on Home Missions.

The Newport Journal issued on Saturday, will contain full reports of the yearly meeting. Orders for copies may be left with C. W. Goddard at the book-room, in advance, or at the office, 137 Thames street. Price, including postage, 5 cents.

OBJECTIONABLE HOTEL PEOPLE.

Why so much talk and discussion about excluding the Hebrews from hotels? Instead of worrying themselves over possible inroads of objectionable Hebrews from without, it would be much more practical for the wise Boniface to purge his house of the numbers of so-called Christians already inside, who, judging from their table manners, would be more at home at a third-rate restaurant counter on the East side. These constitute the really objectionable class, but an allusion to them here must not be construed into a defence of the Jews.

It is of more importance that these fellows should be put out, than that the Jews should be kept out. The man who ought to go is: First, the toothpick fiend; abolish the toothpick from the table and so remove the temptation.

The man who tucks his napkin into his collar and makes a baby's bib of it. Put him at a side table and detail a waiter to feed him.

He who eats with his knife or does the great Japanese sword-swallowing act with his fork.

The fellow who bawls across the room at the waiter, or tries to attract his attention by tapping with a spoon on a tumbler. No sensible waiter will answer either of the summons.

The man who soaks his bread in his coffee or who allows his soup to gurgle down his throat with the sound of boiling water—who grabs at anything and everything edible that is within his reach.

The man who washes his mouth and fingers in his tumbler. The dining room is not a lavatory and tumblers are not washbowls.

The man who makes a "Dutch salad," by mixing everything on his plate into one great "mash."

These are the men that "must go," and before the Hebrew question is again mooted let us hear that these existing nuisances have been removed.—[Hotel Mail.

GEN. GARFIELD AND THE FREEDMEN.

When the question of reconstruction was being discussed, and timid men were afraid to give the freedmen the ballot, Gen. Garfield took the ground that every citizen should have the ballot to make his freedom more than a negation. The following extract from one of his speeches on that subject shows how devoted a champion of human rights General Garfield is:

"In the extremity of our distress we called upon the black man to help us save the republic, and amid the very thunder of battle we made a covenant with him, sealed both with his blood and our, and witnessed by Jehovah, that when the nation was redeemed he should be free and share with us the glories and blessings of freedom. In the solemn words of the great Proclamation of Emancipation, we not only declared the slaves forever free, but we pledged the faith of the nation to maintain their freedom—mark the words, 'to maintain their freedom.' The omniscient witness will appear in judgment against us if we do not fulfil that covenant. Have we done it? Have we given freedom to the black man? What is freedom? Is it a mere negation? The bare privilege of not being chained, bought and sold, branded and scourged? If this be all, then freedom is a bitter mockery, a cruel delusion, and it may well be questioned whether slavery were not better. But liberty is no negation. It is a substantial, tangible reality. It is the realization of those imperishable truths of the declaration that all men are created equal; that the sanction of all just government is the consent of the governed. Can these truths be realized until each man has a right to be heard on all matters relating to himself? We have passed the Red Sea of slaughter; our garments are yet wet with its crimson spray. We have crossed the fearful wilderness of war and have left our four hundred thousand heroes to sleep beside the dead enemies of the republic. We have heard the voice of God amid the thunders of battle, commanding us to wash our hands of iniquity, to proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof. When we spurned His councils we were defeated, and the gulfs of ruin yawned before us. When we obeyed His voice He gave us victory. And now at last we have reached the confines of the wilderness. Before us is the land of promise, the land of hope, the land of peace, filled with possibilities of greatness and glory too vast for the grasp of the imagination. Are we worthy to enter it? On what condition may it be ours to enjoy and transmit to our children's children? Let us pause and make deliberate and solemn preparation. Let us, as representatives of the people whose servants we are, bear in advance the sacred ark of republican liberty, with its tables of the law inscribed with the irreversible guarantees of liberty. Let us here build a monument on which shall be written not only the curses of the law against treason, disloyalty and oppression, but also an everlasting covenant of peace and blessing with loyalty, liberty and obedience, and all the people will say Amen."

A POPULAR PREACHER.

The Rev. John Hall may be called the heaviest of the Presbyterian clergy in New York city, both in talents and weight. He stands six feet high and is rather portly even for his stature. In point of ability he has hardly an equal, at least in that denomination with which he is connected. Those who hear Dr. Hall for the first time are surprised at his simplicity of style. There is no attempt at what may be termed "the sensational," and his sole power is that of scriptural truth, presented with great clearness and earnestness. He can hold the largest average congregation in the city by a presentation of scripture themes in his simple and earnest manner. In this respect he is very different from either Talmage or Beecher. Hall has labored with such intense application that he looks much older than the record of his years. He is is just fifty-one, and has preached in this city thirteen years. He came to a declining church, but it soon was too small for its congregation, and since then the latter has built the largest Presbyterian Church in America. Hall is very liberal in the use of his large salary, and were it trebled it would be none too great for the claims to which he is subjected. He receives $15,000 a year, and his congregation can better afford to pay him $30,000 than to lose a man who draws such attentive crowds.—[Utica Herald.

The English papers have a great deal to say about the United States as a food centre, and the capabilities of our country excite astonishment. The Queen's baker having received the first barrel of flour of this year's American wheat crop, he has presented a loaf of bread made thereof to Her Majesty, and issues a circular to his customers saying: "We take the liberty of forwarding to you a small loaf made from flour of this year's crop. Such an early production in the month of May is an unheard of novelty, and almost incredible. Of the many wonders we who have the good fortune to live in the nineteenth century have been the witnesses, we venture to think that to eat bread which is the result of the 1880 harvest in May, 1880, is not one of the least marvelous."

Landlords of country hotels and boarding houses are beginning to learn the value of a clean bill of health to places intended as summer resorts, and in their circulars and advertisements make special reference to their good draining and pure water supply; but much depends upon what is understood by the term "good." If the standard of excellence is that of a person wholly ignorant or half informed in sanitary matters, there is great danger that the drainage will be imperfect. Half knowledge will not do in these matters. The best will only stand the test of time, and persons of the class mentioned, who depend upon public patronage, will be wise if they consult only with experts in sanitary matters. A blunder is just as bad as a crime where human life is at stake.—[Sanitary Engineer.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Garfield's "record" isn't the thing that the Democratic worry is about. Their real trouble is to know whom to put up against him.

Somebody urged ex-Gov. Seymour to stand the Democratic nomination "because he had experience and character." "I told them," comments the sage of Utica, "that was a good point in favor of my refusal. I have a good character now, and am very anxious to retain it."

Garfield unites and consolidates every section of the Republican party, and sweeps in all the independents who have for years been halting outside the camp. The nomination is a bugle call that has brought in every straggler.—[Hartford Courant.

The Boston Globe and Springfield Republican are the only papers that are making much of an attempt to smirch the fame of Gen. Garfield.—[Fitchburg Sentinel.

PREJUDICE KILLS.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—[The Parents.—Telegram.

A PUBLIC DUTY.

We are not in the habit of puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, for the business of a newspaper is to let people know what is going on in the world, and not to lend aid to what may be an imposition. But we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it, and thus find relief from suffering, no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word. For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equal. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—[Daily Times.

EMULSION
COD LIVER OIL!
—WITH—
Pepsine and Quinine
CASWELL, MASSEY & CO.
offer this preparation of Cod Liver Oil to the profession, in the confident hope that it will supply a pleasant and efficient medium of administering that invaluable remedy.
It is unnecessary at this date to refer to the very high character which has been borne by the "Caswell Cod Liver Oil" since its first introduction; it is sufficient to state that this oil is used in this new preparation.
The proportion of oil held in the emulsion is fifty per cent.; the finest Turkey Gum Arabic and the purest White Sugar are the other ingredients employed in its manufacture.
The addition of Pepsine and Quinine is made with the view of enabling the most delicate stomach to retain and digest the oil.
None Genuine unless Bearing the Signature of the Proprietors.

SUNDRIES.

Many a merchant in these speculative times fails through sins of commission.

The baby in the house is not a well spring of pleasure to the bachelor who lives next door.

A young lady, under the shade of the Chinese parasol, looks like a celestial being.

You mustn't think a dentist is mad because you catch him grinding his teeth.—[Cincinnati Saturday Night.

Eccentric old officer, to new footman—"Now, then, Patrick, call me a cab." Pat, who thinks this a dodge to try his sincerity—"Och, no, yer honor! It's not meself that'll be calling you names, at all!"

Nothing is more pathetic than to see a gentleman rise in a street car and offer his seat to a lady who has been standing for a mile, overcome her protestations and finally receive her gratitude, and then, with a benignant and satisfied smile, hop right off at his own door.

"When I was once in danger from a tiger," said an old East Indian veteran, "I tried sitting down and staring at him, as I had no weapons." "How did it work?" asked a bystander. "Perfectly; the tiger didn't even offer to touch me." "Strange! How did you account for it?" "Well, sometimes I've thought it was because I sat down on a high branch of a very tall tree."—[Exchange.

A young lady having "set her cap" for a rather large specimen of the opposite sex, and having failed to win him, was telling her sorrows to a couple of her confidants, when one of them confronted her with these words: "Never mind, Molly, there are as good fish in the sea as ever was caught." "Molly knows that," replied her little brother, "but she wants a whale."

An old Scotch lady, who had no relish for modern church music, was expressing her dislike for the singing of an anthem in her own church, one day, when a neighbor said: "Why, that is a very old anthem. David sang that anthem to Saul." To this the old lady replied, "Weel, weel, I noo for the first time understan' why Saul threw his javelin at David, when the lad sang for him."

PUBLIC LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND.

Passed at the Adjourned May Session, 1880.

CHAPTER 829.

AN ACT to prevent Deception in the Sale of Butter.

(Passed June 8, 1880.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who shall manufacture for sale, or who shall offer or expose for sale, any article or substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which the oil or fat of animals, not produced from milk, enters as a component part, or into which melted butter or any oil thereof has been introduced to take the place of cream, shall distinctly and durably stamp, brand or mark upon the top and side of every tub, firkin, box or package of such article or substance, the word "Oleomargarine," in letters at least one-half inch in size: and in case of retail sale of such article or substance in parcels, the seller shall in all cases deliver therewith to the purchaser, a written or printed label bearing the plainly written or printed word, "Oleomargarine," and every sale of such article or substance not so stamped, branded, marked or labelled, is declared to be unlawful, and no action shall be maintained in any of the courts of this state to recover upon any contract for sale of any such article or substance not so stamped, branded, marked or labelled.

SEC. 2. Every person who shall knowingly sell, or offer to sell, or expose for sale, or have in his possession with intent to sell, contrary to the provisions of this act, any of the said article or substance required by the first section of this act to be stamped, branded, marked or labelled as therein stated, or in case of retail sale without delivery of a label required by the first section of this act, shall for each such offence be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars; and on trial of such offence, proof of the sale or offer to sell, or of the exposure for sale, shall be presumptive evidence of knowledge of the character of the article so sold, or offered, or exposed, and of knowledge that the same was not marked, branded, stamped or labelled as required by this act.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect on and after the 1st day of July next.

CHAPTER 830.

AN ACT repealing sections 6 and 7 of Chapter 232, of the General Statutes, "Of Offences against Chastity, Morality and Decency;" and in amendment of and in addition to Chapter 73 of the General Statutes, "Of the Suppression of Certain Nuisances."

(Passed June 9, 1880.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 6 and 7 of Chapter 232 of the General Statutes are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. In Chapter 73, section 2, of the General Statutes, the words, "any such common nuisance," shall be construed to include houses of ill-fame resorted to for prostitution and lewdness.

SEC. 3. Section 3 of Chapter 73 of the General Statutes shall read as follows:

"SEC. 3. It shall not be necessary to prove an actual sale of intoxicating liquors in any building, place or tenement in order to establish the character of such premises as a common nuisance, but the notorious character of any such premises, or the notoriously bad or intemperate character of persons visiting the same, or the keeping of the implements or appurtenances usually appertaining to grog-shops, tippling-shops or places where intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be prima facie evidence that such premises are nuisances within the meaning of the first section of this Chapter, and evidence of the sale or keeping of intoxicating liquors for sale in any building, place or tenement shall be prima facie evidence that the sale or keeping is illegal, and that such premises are nuisances within the meaning of the first section of this Chapter."

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 831.

AN ACT to repeal Section 1, Chapter 81, of the General Statutes, and Chapter 497 of the Public Laws, and for other purposes.

(Passed June 9, 1880.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 81 of the General Statutes, and Chapter 497 of the Public laws, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. The Town Council of any town may regulate or prohibit bowling alleys within the whole or any part of their respective towns, and may fix penalties for the violation thereof as is provided in section 19 of Chapter 35 of the General Statutes.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 832.

AN ACT in amendment of Chapter 85 of the General Statutes, "Of Ferrets and Weasels and Hares."

(Passed June 9, 1880.)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 85 of the General Statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. Every person who shall take, kill or destroy any rabbit, hare or grey squirrel, between the first day of February and the first day of September in each year, shall forfeit the sum of five dollars for each and every rabbit, hare or grey squirrel so taken, killed or destroyed."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

I certify the foregoing to be true copies.
